

The NJ Do Not Call list has worked marvelously and should be considered an excellent example of how well the system can work. Federal standards provided the MINIMUM protection; do not let the State's decision to provide additional protection to it's citizens be jeopardized or undercut.